

PROCLAMATION OF THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF MILL VALLEY
CELEBRATING THE FIRST ANNUAL VOLUNTEER DAY IN THE CITY OF MILL VALLEY

WHEREAS, Mill Valley has a remarkably talented and dedicated corps of volunteers which give selflessly to the Community through their work on the City's Boards, Commissions and Committees; and

WHEREAS, many groups and organizations in the community also thrive on the contributions of unpaid volunteers who provide much-needed assistance to these organizations which benefit the City; and

WHEREAS, the need to recruit individuals who will contribute their time to the City and to the community is an ongoing issue that needs sustained and generous support; and

WHEREAS, National Volunteer Week will be celebrated from April 6 – 13, 2014. The City of Mill Valley and Parks and Recreation Commissioner Joan Murray teamed up to establish an event which will gather together and celebrates various Mill Valley organizations to help promote and spread awareness about the growing need to recruit volunteers to assist with local community groups; and

WHEREAS, on April 5, 2014, the City of Mill Valley and various other local organizations will be available in the Downtown Plaza to answer questions about their organization and sign up new volunteers; various community groups including sports affiliations, scouting groups, music and other arts will also be represented.

NOW THEREFORE, be it resolved that the Mill Valley City Council hereby proclaims that it honors National Volunteer Week and encourages citizens to attend the April 5, 2014 City of Mill Valley Volunteer Day. Get involved and volunteer today!

Dated: March 17, 2014

_____
Stephanie Moulton-Peters, Mayor

ITEM 1